

10-1 – Trails to the West- Pages 308-311

Essential Question: Why did the American West attract a variety of settlers?

Main Idea 1:

During the early 1800s, many Americans moved west of the Rocky Mountains to settle and trade.

- Some of the first _____ in the _____ were _____: fur _____ and _____.
- Many _____ traveled _____ over the _____.
- The _____ was another important path _____.
- American _____ moved to the _____ for many reasons.
 - The fair _____ and rich _____ of Oregon Country appealed to _____.
 - The _____ caused many economic _____ to American _____.
 - The _____ offered _____ to _____ who were used to abundant _____.

Mountain Men

- Fur _____ and _____, who were some of the first _____ to _____ the _____
- _____ created one of the largest _____ businesses, the American _____.
- Astor founded _____, one of the first _____ in _____.

Oregon Trail

- _____ were lured by rich _____ and the mild _____.
- The _____ was _____ miles, beginning in _____ or _____ and ending in _____ or _____.
- _____ faced many _____ on the _____ Trail.
 - Hard journey because of the high _____ of _____ a _____, food _____, bad _____, and _____ and _____ that were _____ to cross.

Santa Fe Trail

- The _____ led from _____, Missouri, to Santa Fe, _____.
- Was _____ a _____ trading route
- Traders used the _____ to _____ American goods for _____ goods; _____ made _____ profits.
- Difficult _____ due to hot _____ and rough _____.

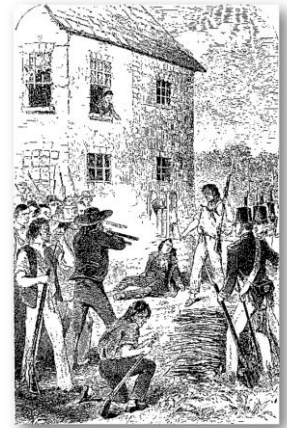

Main Idea 2:

The Mormons traveled west in search of religious freedom.

- _____ founded the _____ in western _____ in 1830.
- _____ became the new _____ of the _____ and moved the group to _____.

Mormons

- The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was founded by _____ in Western New York in _____.
- Their book of _____ teachings is called the _____.
- Church members were _____ due to some _____, including _____ (1 man married to several wives).
- _____ was _____ by a _____ in 1844.

Brigham Young

- New _____ of the _____ after Joseph Smith _____
- Chose _____ as the group's new _____
- Due to the efforts of _____, thousands of _____ took the Mormon Trail to _____.
- By _____, there were about _____ Mormons there.

