

19-4 – The Rights of Women and Minorities- Pages 622-626

Essential Question: In what ways did the progressive movement make advances for the rights of women and some other minorities?

Main Idea 1:

Female progressives fought for temperance and the right to vote.

- The main issues of female _____ were child _____, temperance, and women’s _____.
- New _____ opportunities drew more _____ into the _____ movement.
- Denied _____ into such _____ as law and _____, women entered fields such as _____ work and _____.
- Women who _____ with university _____ were _____ from entering _____ fields.
- Women’s clubs _____ for many _____, including _____, women’s suffrage, child welfare, and political _____.

Temperance

- Women _____ took up the cause of _____: avoidance of _____ consumption.
- The Woman’s Christian Temperance Union campaigned to _____ the _____ of _____ beverages.

Women’s Suffrage

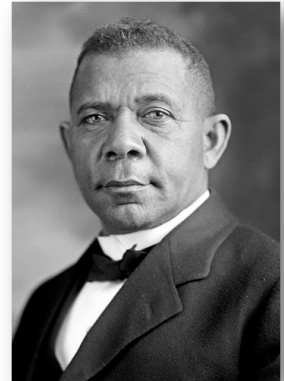

- Women _____ fought for _____, or the right to _____.
- _____ and _____ founded the National American Woman Suffrage Association (1890).
- Alice Paul founded the more _____ National _____ Party (1913).
 - Used _____ and public _____, picketing, and hunger _____ to spread their _____
- Suffragists won the _____ to _____ with the _____ Amendment (_____).

Main Idea 2:

African American reformers challenged discrimination and called for equality.

- _____ encouraged African Americans to _____ their _____ and educational opportunities rather than _____ discrimination.
- Ida B. Wells spoke out against _____ and drew _____ to the lynching of African American men.
- W. E. B. Du Bois attacked _____ and helped found the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. They called for _____ and educational _____ for African Americans.
- The National Urban League, founded in 1911, helped African Americans moving from the _____ to find _____ and _____.

Booker T. Washington

Main Idea 3:

Progressive reform did not benefit all minorities.

- Chinese Americans faced much _____, and their _____ was _____ by the Chinese _____ Act of 1882.
- Chinese immigration _____ because _____ passed a _____ prohibiting Chinese people from _____ to the United States.
- The Society of American Indians wanted _____ to adopt the ways of white _____, but many of them _____.
- Immigration by Mexicans _____ during this period, and most _____ to areas that were once part of _____.

